

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS (INTB)

INTB 179: 3 s.h.

Experimental

Experimental Course International Business

INTB 279: 3 s.h.

Experimental

Experimental Course in International Business

INTB 321A: 3 s.h.

Intro to International Business (G3)

A survey of international business (IB). Introduces major issues, institutions, opportunities, problems and managerial processes unique to international business. Includes micro and macro context, theory, impact of environmental factors on international business operations, and identification and analysis of managerial issues. Course content relates to current events. Offered in fall, spring. Prereq: ECON 101, 102.

INTB 321B: 3 s.h.

Intro to International Business (G3)

A survey of international business (IB). Introduces major issues, institutions, opportunities, problems and managerial processes unique to international business. Includes micro and macro context, theory, impact of environmental factors on international business operations, and identification and analysis of managerial issues. Course content relates to current events. Offered in fall, spring. Prereq: ECON 101, 102.

INTB 379: 3 s.h.

Experimental

Experimental Course in International Business

INTB 405: 3 s.h.

Topics in Internatl Business

Advanced, innovative, or exploratory topics and disciplines within international business. Specific content items developed by instructor. Most topics will be for business majors only. Offered periodically. Prerequisites may vary. Consult the current course offering.

INTB 479: 3 s.h.

Experimental

Experimental Course in International Business

INTB 499: 1-4 s.h.

Departmental Honors

Departmental Honors