SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES, SUPERVISORY CERTIFICATION

The certificate to supervise psychological services in the public schools requires 15 s.h. of coursework and practicum. Certification as a public school psychologist is a prerequisite to entering this program. While the student may begin the program at any time after becoming a certified school psychologist, a minimum of five years of experience as a school psychologist is required before the supervisory certificate may be granted.