

MATHEMATICS, M.ED.

The Department of Mathematics offers graduate coursework in mathematics and mathematics education, and offers the M.Ed. in mathematics education. Courses are designed to be of optimum value and relevance to teachers of mathematics in secondary schools. Mathematics teachers who are not pursuing a degree may enroll as nondegree students and elect any course in mathematics or mathematics education for which they have the prerequisites.