

FINE ART METALS MINOR

---

The Fine Art Metals minor gives students an opportunity to develop traditional and contemporary metals and jewelry design skills, conceptual strategies, and problem solving skills in a creative environment. Students will develop a personal design aesthetic and vocabulary through investigation of traditional metal techniques and material processes while creating small sculpture and jewelry.