

THEATRE MINOR

The minor in Theatre combines traditional academic coursework in the classroom with practical experience through participation in productions on campus. Students receive academic preparation and training in theatre fundamentals, such as performance and production work including acting, directing, scenic design, costume, makeup, lighting and sound.