

ECONOMICS MINOR

The 18-credit Economics Minor provides training in core economics principles and theory and depth in applied economic analysis. The Economics Minor provides an excellent complementary program to a wide variety of majors including those in Business, Mathematics, and Government.