Our program in German Language Studies is designed to help students acquire a high level of proficiency in German and deep knowledge about the cultures related to the language. Students develop skills in linguistic, cultural, and literary analysis to be prepared for careers in a field where they can use their second language at a professional level.

Note: In lieu of the second and third foreign language requirement, students may elect to minor in a language (a minimum of 18 credits; see minor requirements). Required related courses: ENGL 220 Introduction to Language Study, one course in history or geography related to the foreign language area of study in consultation with advisor. Study abroad strongly recommended.
