Note: In lieu of the second and third foreign language requirement, students may elect to minor in a language (a minimum of 18 credits; see minor requirements). Required related courses: ENGL 220 Introduction to Language Study, one course in history or geography related to the foreign language area of study in consultation with advisor. Study abroad strongly recommended.