GOVERNMENT, POLICY, AND LAW

The study of government and politics is integral to understanding people's rights and responsibilities as a citizen and acquiring an understanding of domestic and international affairs.

The Department of Government, Policy, and Law offers three major programs: (1) a Bachelor of Arts (B.A) in Government, Policy, and Law; (2) a Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) in Government, Policy, and Law with a concentration in Pre-Law; and (3) a Bachelor of Science in education (B.S.E.) in secondary education (which provides a teaching certification in the social sciences). The department also offers two minor programs: Government, Policy, and Law; and Government, Policy, and Law: Pre-Law.

Admission Requirements

New students (first year students and transfers) may be admitted to the government, policy and law major by the Office of Admissions upon admission to the University. Admission into the government and political affairs major from other majors at the University is dependent upon approval of the Department of Government, Policy and Law. Such students must have a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher to be admitted into the major.

<td>This course will take one work of fiction, a particular author/writer, or a number of different works of fiction which are thematically connected, and examine the political, social, and cultural questions and issues embedded in these works. Political philosophy asks central questions about human life- what makes us human; what, if anything, makes the best state; how can humans live together while being individuals in their own right, etc. Well crafted works of political fiction are often the best gateway to politics since they use a fictional reality to develop abstract concepts. In fact, some of the best works of political philosophy is fiction. Instructors will choose works of fiction which, juxtaposed with political writings, speeches, articles, and texts, enable students to identify and answer the great political questions of generations.
