

MUSIC INDUSTRY, B.S. – MUSIC PRODUCTION

The primary goal of this music industry degree track's curriculum is to provide students with a solid foundation in music production and music industry studies. In addition, students will increase their specificity in music production, thus resulting in students who will be more prepared for the job market and more competitive with graduates from private institutions.