APPLIED ENGINEERING
& TECHNOLOGY, A.T.-
OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH

The Occupational Safety and Hygiene option is designed to provide students with both basic theoretical knowledge and practical skills in occupational safety. The courses in this option allow students to have a broad experience in key issues. These courses provide an overview of legal aspects of safety; industrial fire prevention, protection and control; safety engineering; environmental and industrial hygiene; ergonomics; and general, organic and biochemistry.