

INDUSTRIAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH MINOR

This 18-21 credit minor provides the background needed to understand the impact of environmental issues on public health. Through the courses in this minor, students will gain hands-on experience at the interface of environmental science, environmental policy, and healthcare.