

ENVIRONMENTAL GEOGRAPHY MINOR

A minor in environmental geography emphasizes a study of physical and human geography and traditional resource-based issues of air, water, energy and land resources. The minor complements most majors in the social and natural sciences. 18 credits required.