SOCIAL STUDIES, B.S.ED. - GEOGRAPHY ADVISED

The Social Studies Secondary Education program at Millersville University incorporates core social studies courses with diverse education requirements. Core social studies courses explore the global environment, economics, government, history and more. In consultation with an academic advisor, you can concentrate in geography. All MU education programs include a Foundations Block which explores modern teaching and the psychology of teaching. Professional Blocks which focus on instructional technology and positive learning environments, and a semester of student teaching.
