

MATHEMATICS, B.S. - STATISTICS OPTION

The Applied Mathematics option is specifically intended to focus on applying mathematical knowledge in fields including (but not limited to): fluid and solid mechanics, physics, chemistry, engineering, biological sciences, economics, finance, and medical science. The program is designed to prepare students for careers or graduate school. Students enrolled in the B.S. program may complete the Applied Mathematics option.