

MATHEMATICS, B.S.ED. - STATISTICS OPTION

Studying Statistics at Millersville University will prepare you to develop and apply mathematical and statistical theory and methods to collect, organize, interpret and summarize numerical data. This option, which is housed within the Mathematics department, is taught by high quality faculty who have expertise in this area.

The Statistics option can be applied to the Bachelor of Science in Education (B.S.Ed.) program.