

CERTIFICATE IN POPULATION HEALTH

The certificate in population health is for anyone working in or with an interest in working the healthcare system. This certificate includes two required courses (NURS 310 Health Issues from a Population Health Perspective and NURS 312 Value-Based Care) and another 12 credits of multidisciplinary courses individually designed to meet the student's unique learning needs.