

FINANCE MINOR

The Finance Minor is for non-business majors who want a better understanding corporate finance, investments, financial modeling, and financial markets pursuing a full degree in business. It is a popular choice and provides important knowledge for students pursuing a variety of majors including Math (Actuarial Science), Computer Science, Pre-Law, and Economics.