MANAGEMENT MINOR

The Management Minor is a highly flexible curriculum designed for non-business majors who wish to attain a leadership position in their chosen discipline at some point in their careers and is a popular choice for a wide array of different types of students across MU. It allows for a high degree of high level Management Course options so that students can choose the best set of classes to match their interests.

Regulations Governing Minor Course Work
1. There shall be a minimum of 18.0 credit hours with a minimum Millersville QPA of 2.0.
