

UNIVERSITY WRITING CENTER

The Writing Center at Millersville University helps students with all aspects of their writing, from idea development and organization to proofreading strategies. Students who want to improve their writing skills, techniques and styles can make appointments to consult on an assignment or to discuss general concerns. All levels of writing help are available, and students from all disciplines and classes are welcome. The Writing Center tutors are here to help with papers, projects, and any writing-related needs. The Writing Center offers in-person, synchronous Zoom sessions, and online tutoring. If you can't make an in-person appointment, you can send a paper for an online session. For an online session, please e-mail the Writing Center at Writing.Center@millersville.edu, attach a copy of your work and a copy of the assignment for which the work was completed, and a tutor will review your work and send it back to you with guided feedback and comments within 48 hours. The Writing Center is located on the first floor, Room 106, McNairy Library.
